Blind Man's Bluff: A Duncan Maclain Mystery
by Baynard Kendrick
Blind detective with seeing-eye poodle, no joke
Publication date 1943

Baynard Hardwick Kendrick was an American mystery novelist. He wrote whodunit novels about Duncan Maclain, a blind private investigator who worked with his two German shepherds and his household of assistants to solve murder mysteries (wikipedia)

HOME ECONOMICS

Damn that inflation!

When in doubt, consult our grandmothers:

<https://www.gutenberg.org/ebooks/subject/3596>

Books about Food conservation has three recipe books with home economics prose:

Money-Saving Main Dishes (1962) - USDA

Foods That Will Win the War and How to Cook Them

Everyday Foods in War Time - both from 1918

<https://www.gutenberg.org/browse/loccts/tx>

Home Economics books; has several recently-added booklets from the 50's-80's with economical recipes and household ideas. You'll probably want to avoid most of the books from the 18th and 19th Century; some do deal with cost-saving, but in a pre-electricity way.
